

Conflict Incident Monthly Tracker

Ondo State: January-February 2018

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns and trends in conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback and input for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends Nov 2017-Jan 2018

According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), incidents reported during the period included communal tensions, criminality, protest, and violence affecting women and girls (VAWG).

Violent Criminality: In December, a 70-year old man was killed by his neighbor during a disagreement in Okitipupa LGA. In a separate incident, a monarch was reportedly attacked by hoodlums in Igbokoda, Ilaje LGA. In January, a 10-man kidnapping/robbery gang which included two soldiers, were reportedly arrested by the police in Owo LGA. A kidnapped victim was also rescued by the police. Separately, a hotel director and guest were reportedly abducted by gunmen in Akoko South LGA. In another incident, a commercial bus driver was stabbed to death by a herdsman during a misunderstanding in Akure South LGA. Criminality was a key driver of violence affecting women and girls (VAWG) during the period.

Violence Affecting Women and Girls (VAWG):

In November, a male member of the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC) was reportedly arrested by the police for uploading compromising photos of a woman on the internet in Akure South LGA. The suspect used the pictures to blackmail the victim in order to extort money from her.

Communal Tensions: In January, tension between herdsman and farmers was elevated in the state. In Akure South LGA, herdsman reportedly attacked a farm belonging to a former Secretary to the Federal Government (SFG) and set it on fire. About five hectare of palm oil plantation was destroyed during the attack.

Protest: In January, a group of ex-militants under the Presidential Amnesty Program reportedly besieged the office of the Ondo State Oil Producing Areas Commission (OSOPADEC) in protest over alleged mismanagement of the program in the state.

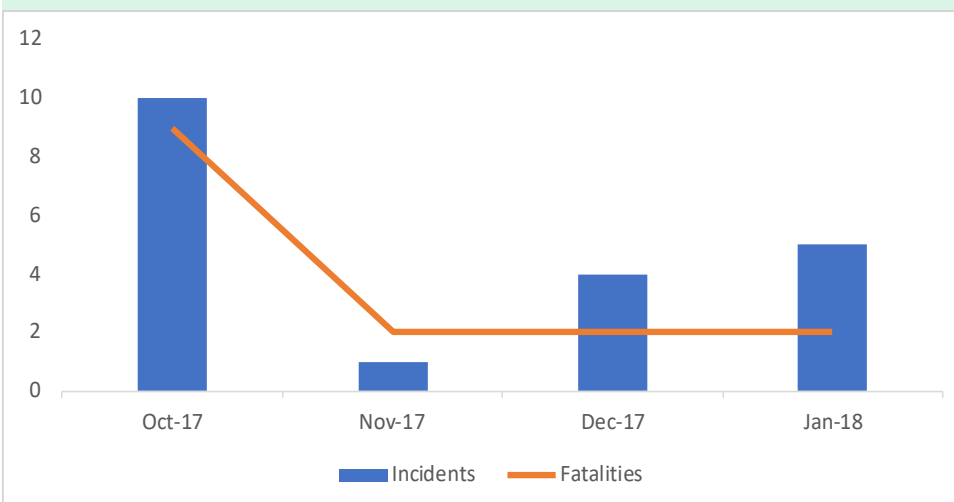

Others: In December, a man reportedly died in police custody in Akure South LGA. The victim was arrested and detained by the Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS), but was later found dead. Separately, a young boy selling food on the street was reportedly killed by a stray bullet fired by a security guard attached to a petrol station in Akure South LGA. The security guard was later arrested by the police.

Recent Incidents or Issues, February 2018

Incidents during the month related mainly to criminality and communal violence.

Criminality: A couple reportedly kidnapped two of their landlady's children, a boy and girl, in Owo LGA. The incident happened barely a week after the couple rented an apartment from the landlady. Separately, a 40-year old lawyer was reportedly kidnapped by gunmen in Akoko South LGA. The victim was waylaid and abducted while he was travelling in a commercial bus. The driver and other passengers were robbed by the kidnappers.

Communal Violence: A local vigilante group reportedly arrested four herdsmen for criminality in Ese-Odo LGA. Weapons were recovered from suspects. Separately, tension was reportedly heightened among residents of Akun community, Akoko North East LGA, following the arrival of herdsmen in four trailer trucks. In Akure South LGA, over 30 herdsmen reportedly attacked the council secretariat and chase out officials following a confrontation between a staff and a herdsman. In a Akure South LGA, herdsmen reportedly attacked a farm belonging to the Speaker of the Ondo State House of Assembly, and destroyed a maize plantation.

Prognosis

Reported incidents during this period related mainly to criminality, communal tensions, protests, and Violence Affecting Women and Girls (VAWG). Peace Agents must monitor the situation closely and respond appropriately.
