

Conflict Incident Monthly Tracker

Imo State: April-May 2017

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns and trends in conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback and input for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends

February-April 2017

According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), incidents reported during this period included criminality, cult violence, political tensions, and protests.

Violent Criminality: In February, four people were reportedly killed by robbers at a bank in Owerri North. In March, the police reported arrested fifty suspects for robbery, kidnapping, cultism, vandalism and human trafficking in the state. In April, two youth leaders were reportedly killed by gunmen at a drinking spot in Isiala Mbano. Separately, robbers reportedly killed a man along with his wife and son in their residence in Owerri Municipal. In another incident, four people, including a 30-year old banker, were reportedly shot dead by robbers at an Automated Teller Machine (ATM) point in Okigwe. Also in Okigwe, robbers reportedly shot dead a policeman and made away with his car. Separately, a robber was reportedly killed by the police in Okigwe. In Isiala Mbano, a kidnapper was reportedly killed in a shootout with the police during a rescue operation.

Cult Violence: In March, a male student of the Imo State university (IMSU) was reportedly shot dead by cultists. The incident was believed to be related to rival cult violence in the university.

Political Violence: In February, an electoral official was reportedly assaulted and kidnapped by political thugs in Owerri North. Some of the thugs were later arrested by security operatives.

Accidental Weapons Discharges: In April, a physically challenged man was reportedly killed by a stray bullet fired by an officer of the Imo Security Network in Orlu. In a similar incident, an officer of the Imo Security Network was reported to have accidentally shot dead his colleague during a peacekeeping mission in Oru West.

Protests: In February, students of the Federal University of Technology Owerri (FUTO) reportedly protested over fees in Owerri Municipal. The protest turned violent and some of the students were reportedly tear gassed and arrested by the police. In March, sacked local government workers reportedly protested over unpaid salaries in Owerri.

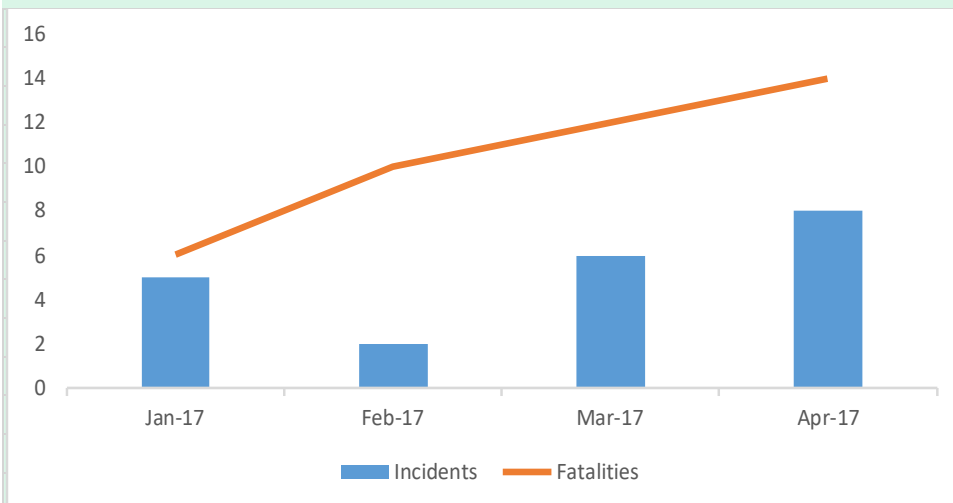

Other: In March, a policeman reportedly shot dead a 16-year old boy and wounded three others in Isiala Mbano.
