

Conflict Incident Monthly Tracker

Imo State: January-February 2018

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns and trends in conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback and input for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends Nov 2017-Jan 2018

According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), there was an increase in violent fatalities in Imo State in January 2018. Incidents reported in the state during this period included criminality, communal tensions, political tensions, protests, and fire outbreaks.

Violent Criminality: In November, two robbers were reportedly shot dead by operatives of the police Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS) in Mbatoli LGA. Separately, the police reportedly killed two robbers during a shootout in Orlu LGA. In January, three kidnappers were reportedly killed in a gun battle with operatives of the police Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS) in Njaba LGA. Separately, six hoodlums were reportedly killed during a shootout with the police in Ohaji/Egbema LGA. Criminality during this period also involved violence affecting women and girls (VAWG).

Communal Tensions: In January, two people, including a female octogenarian, were reportedly killed in a clash between two masquerade groups during a festival in a in Oguta LGA. Members of a masquerade cult attacked masquerades from another village to avenge their colleague's death during a masquerade festival.

Violent Protests: In November, a young man was reportedly killed by a traditional ruler during a disagreement in Mbatoli LGA. The incident led to a protest by youth, who burned down an oil mill and vehicles. In December, five people were reportedly injured and 10 tricycles destroyed during a clash between tricycle operators and officials of the state Environmental Transformation Committee (ENTRACO) in Owerri Municipal LGA. The clash was triggered by the state government ban on the use of tricycles in the metropolis.

Others: In December, four members of the Movement for the Actualization of the Sovereign State of Biafra (MASSOB) were reportedly killed during a clash between two factions of the group in Unuimo LGA. Separately, there was tension in the state following the reported suspension of the Majority Leader of the Imo State House of Assembly in Owerri, the state capital. In January, the official residence of the Imo state deputy governor in Owerri, the state capital, was reportedly razed by fire.

Recent Incidents or Issues, February 2018

Incidents during the month related mainly to criminality and protests.

Criminality: A 95-year old man and his 13-year old granddaughter were reportedly kidnapped in Owerri West LGA. It is believed that the victims are kidnapped for a ransom because five of the old man's children reside outside Nigeria. Separately, operatives of the Nigerian Security and Civil Defense Corps (NSCDC) reportedly arrested five suspects for illegal oil bunkering and vandalism in Oru West LGA. A truck load with petroleum products was recovered from the suspects.

Protests: Hundred of women protested at the Imo State Police Headquarters in Owerri, the state capital, over insecurity in their community. The protesters complained of incessant kidnappings in their community in Okigwe LGA.

Others: During the month, many criminals in the state reportedly accepted amnesty offered to them by the state government and surrendered their arms in Owerri, the state capital. Some of the criminals included those that escaped from neighboring Rivers state after they were declared wanted by the government for crimes committed in the state.

Prognosis

Incidents during the period related mainly to criminality, communal tensions, cult violence, violent protests, and child trafficking. Peace Agents must continue to monitor the situation closely and respond appropriately.
