

Conflict Incident Monthly Tracker

Abia State: February-March 2019

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns and trends in conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback and input for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends

Dec 2018-Feb 2019

According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), there was a spike in lethal violence in Abia state in February 2019. Reported incidents during this period related mainly to criminality, mob violence, domestic violence, separatism, and fire outbreak.

Criminality: In January, the chairman of the Abia state chapter of the All Progressives Congress (APC) was reportedly abducted by hoodlums along the Enugu-Port Harcourt expressway in Isiala Ngwa South LGA. In February, gunmen reportedly killed a policeman attached to a popular hotel in the commercial city of Aba. The gunmen made away with a rifle belonging to the policeman.

Mob Violence: In February, a mob reportedly lynched and burned a suspected robber in Eziamma community, Aba North LGA. The suspected was reportedly a member of a gang of hoodlums that attacked and robbed residents of the community.

Domestic Violence: In December, a man reportedly beat his wife to stupor during a disagreement in Ahaba, Isuikwuato LGA. The man later burned himself to death.

Fire Outbreak: In December, a man and his 3-year old son reportedly died during a fire outbreak at their residence in Mgbe street, Aba South LGA. Separately, fire reportedly razed Nkwa Ngwa, a popular market in Aba South LGA.

Separatism: In December, the police reportedly arrested 51 members of the Indigenous People of Biafra (IPOB), including 41 males and 10 females, during a religious procession in Umuahia, the state capital. The procession was reportedly performing a Jewish religious obligation. They were allegedly arrested for a breach of the peace. In January, some supporters of the Indigenous People of Biafra (IPOB) reportedly attacked a church and attempted to beat up a pastor in Aba South LGA.

Others: In January, gunshots and canisters of tear gas were reportedly fired by public security forces during a debate organized for some governorship candidates at the Abia Hotels in Umuahia, the state capital. The incident was caused by a confrontation between security aides to some of the politicians and students who besieged the venue of the debate. The security aides reportedly manhandled the leaders of the students who barricaded the gate. A stampede ensued as people struggled to escape from the venue.
