

Conflict Incident Monthly Tracker

Bayelsa State: February-March 2019

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns of conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends Dec 2018-Feb 2019

According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), there was an increase in lethal violence in Bayelsa state in February 2019. Incidents reported during this period included communal tension, political violence, cult violence, sexual violence, mob violence, and criminality.

Communal Tension: In December, there was a reported clash between Amatolo and Okumbiri communities in Sagbama LGA, over an attack by cultists. In January, 12 riverine communities from Ekeremor and Southern Ijaw LGAs reportedly threatened a showdown with the Shell Petroleum Development Company (SPDC) over alleged harassment of local fishermen by a security firm working for the oil company in the area.

Cult Violence: In January, a policeman was reportedly killed during a clash between members of Icelanders and Greenlanders confraternities in Gwegwe and Otioth communities in Yenagoa LGA. The clash was allegedly triggered by the killing of the leader of one of the cult groups.

Political Violence: In February, a ward chairman of the Peoples Democratic Party

(PDP) and the Bayelsa state government house photographer were reportedly killed by gunmen suspected to be political thugs in Oweikoro, Southern Ijaw LGA. The victims were reportedly killed in their houses while waiting for the results of the elections in their wards.

Criminality: In December, a man and his driver were reportedly killed by kidnappers along Onuebum-Otuogori road, Ogbia LGA. The victims were on their way to the hideout of the kidnappers to pay a ransom. In January, a lawyer who was also a human rights activist was reportedly killed by robbers who made away with his 2 million naira in Opolo, Yenagoa LGA.

Violence Affecting Women and Girls (VAWG): In addition to the impact of criminality on women and girls listed above, sexual violence was also reported in the state during this period. In January, for instance, a female fish seller was reportedly killed by unknown assailants in Akenfa, Yenagoa LGA. The killers reportedly took away the underwear and some vital organs of the victim.

Recent Incidents or Issues, March 2019

Incidents reported during this period related mainly to criminality, mob violence, and ritual killings.

Violent Criminality: During the month, two male members of the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC) were reportedly killed by gunmen in Swali community, Yenagoa LGA. The gunmen attacked and shot the victims in their house. Separately, gunmen reportedly killed two policemen guarding a hotel and made away with their rifles in Yenagoa LGA. In another incident, two robbers were reportedly arrested by the police in Biogbolo
