

Conflict Incident Monthly Tracker

Cross River State: June-July 2019

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns and trends in conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback and input for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends April-June 2019

According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), there was a decrease in lethal violence in Cross River state in June 2019. Incidents reported during this period included communal violence, criminality, cult violence, human trafficking, and Violence Affecting Women and Girls (VAWG).

Communal Violence: In April, 10 people were reportedly killed during a clash over a land dispute between some communities in Obubra LGA, Cross River state and Ikwo community in neighboring Ebonyi state. In May, two people were reportedly killed during a renewed communal clash over a land dispute in Odukpani LGA.

Violent Criminality: In May, a man reportedly killed his elder brother during a domestic disagreement in Wanihem community, Yala LGA. Villagers reportedly buried the suspect alive with the victim. In June, a man who allegedly doubles as a pastor and traditional medicine practitioner was reportedly arrested for robbery in Calabar South LGA. The suspected also reportedly raped a woman he was contracted to heal of an illness.

Cult Violence: In April, four people were reportedly killed during a clash between Black Axe and Klans cult groups in Calabar Municipal. In May, two people were reportedly killed during clashes between rival cult groups at two different locations in Calabar Municipal LGA. In June, security operatives reportedly arrested a male student of the University of Calabar for cultism and illegal possession of firearms in Calabar South LGA.

Human Trafficking: In April, a man was reportedly arrested by the police for attempting to sell his two children, a boy and a girl, at Murray Street, Calabar Municipal LGA.

Violence Affecting Women and Girls (VAWG): In addition to the impact of communal violence and criminality on women and girls listed above, sexual violence was also reported during this period. In April, for instance, a 59-year old man was reportedly arrested for raping a 12-year old girl in Calabar Municipal LGA.

Separately, a 45-year old man was reportedly arrested for having carnal knowledge of a 5-year old girl in Mkpang Street, Calabar Municipal LGA.
