

Monthly Conflict Incident Tracker

Cross River - March 2016

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns and trends in conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback and input for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends

Dec 2015-Feb 2016

A few incidents of cult-related violence, communal conflict, vigilante/mob justice and protests were reported during this period (see Figure 1).

In December, two fatalities were reported in a cult-related clash in Odukpani. In January, 15 people were reported injured and property destroyed in an inter-communal clash in Yala. Also in January, two alleged human traffickers with 29 youths were reported detained by Immigration officers in Abi.

In February, there were reported assassination attempts on two prominent political personalities by suspected gunmen in Calabar. Also, a young man was reportedly shot dead in a cult war, while in a related incident another person was killed in a suspected reprisal attack in Obudu.

Recent Incidents or Issues, March 2016

Incidents reported in March included protests in Akpabuyo, Akamkpa, and Obubra LGAs.

Youths from Akamkpa and Akpabuyo local government areas (LGAs) reportedly protested against the management of a cement manufacturing company over the nature of the road that leads to the community where the company's plant is located. The protesting youths reportedly blocked a major link road through which goods are transported from the company's plant.

In a separate incident, there was a reported protest over an alleged government plan to clear a large area of forest to make way for the construction of a highway in Akamkpa and Obubra LGAs.
